Dear Nic,

Thank you for your letter of 13 January to the Foreign Secretary on behalf of your constituent, Mr Gary Owens of 36 Marsden Drive, Scunthorpe, North Lincolnshire, DN15 8AH, regarding your request for the Foreign and Commonwealth Office to intervene to allow him to visit his mother before she passes away. I am replying as Minister for Europe.

I am sorry to hear about the difficult circumstances that Mr Owens currently finds himself in, in Spain and appreciate this ongoing uncertainty must be causing his family a great deal of distress. Consular officers at the British Consulate in Malaga have informed me that they have not received any request for assistance from Mr Owens or his family, since July 2012.

It is important to note that members of the Her Majesty's Government cannot intervene in the legal processes of a foreign country. However, if Mr Owens is still in Spain and requires further consular assistance, please ask him to contact the British Consulate in Malaga, Calle Mauricio Moro Pareto, 2, Edificio Eurocom, 29006. Email: spain_consulate@fco.gov.uk Tel: +34 95 235 9211. If you could supply us with contact details for Mr Owens consular officers would be happy to contact him directly.

If Mr Owens has not yet sought the advice of a local lawyer, they would be best placed to act on his behalf in Spain. For your information the contact details for the Court dealing with Mr Owens' case are as follows:

Juzgado De Primera Instancia (Torremolinos)
Dirección: Avda. Palma de Mallorca, 32 CP 29620
Provincia: Málaga
País: España
Tel No: +34 95 103 78 65 Fax: +34 95 103 78 64

contact the FCO's Consular Desk Officer for Spain, Anna Timmins on 0207 008 0174.
